NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay restitution in the amount of $265,113.51; it shall be paid in the following manner: to the Northman Grumman Corporation at a rate of $150 per month commencing 30 days after release from imprisonment.' |
|---|--|

Sanders released from imprisonment on December 30, 2010, and commenced the term of supervised release. To date, Sanders had paid a total of $3,945.00 in payments toward the special assessment ($100 satisfied) and $3,845 applied toward the restitution. Given the $150.00 per month requirement, the probation officer has determined Sanders falls short of the monthly payment obligation by an amount of $1,005.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

To our knowledge, the offender has not re-involved himself in criminal activity and has otherwise been compliant with the terms of supervised release. At the direction of the probation officer, Sanders attended the Moral Reconciliation Program in Camden, New Jersey and was one of the first graduates.

Sanders has spent the majority of his employment in the development of his technological invention, VideoiGames, with two patents pending to date. Offender developed this online gaming system which he has hoped to launch and he believes will be prosperous once launched. Sanders has been forthcoming with information requested regarding all aspects of this endeavor. The probation officer is satisfied the offender paid his financial obligation to the best of his ability and recommends supervision be permitted to conclude as scheduled on December 29, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,

Sharon A. O'Brien
